

C&T ORIGINALS

A selection of cocktails curated by our bartenders

DANISH FLY

Krogstad Aqua Vit served long in a hollowed Pineapple cup, with a hearty dose of Banana and a touch of Pomegranate.

BOSS COLADA

A long and tropical drink, with fresh pineapple and lime. Baska Snäps steals the show in this C&T Classic.

13

FLOR DE JAMAICA

Hibiscus-infused Reyka Vodka, Pomegranate, and a touch of ginger make a floral and spicy sour. Perfect for a New Orleans' "Winter."

11

SACRED HERB

A tall refreshing variation on the Pina Colada with a New Orleans update, Coconut Cream and Herbsaint make for a delicious tropical drink with a hint of Anise.

"PIMM'S" NO. 4

In the mid Twentieth Century, Pimm's produced several blends. The Number Four was their rum based and Caribbean spiced version. Based on it's profile, this is our house creation.

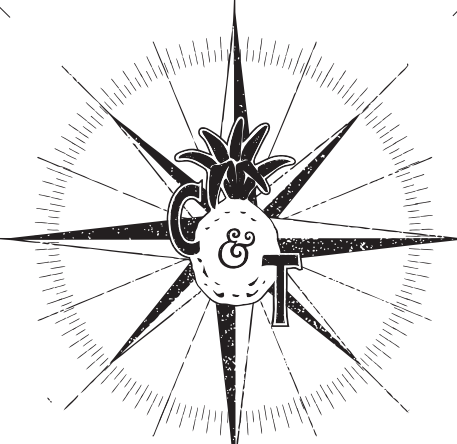

11

THE CHASE SPECIAL

Based on one of our friend's favorite cocktails (The Trinidad Sour), this cocktail blends a Mexican Amaro with pineapple and lime in a delightfully creamy and bitter cocktail.

REFRESHING

YOUNGIAN COCKTAIL

Based on a lost product called Hercules—a Yerba Mate infused Apertif—and named for a former bartender with apenchant for the tea, this silky and herbal Martini is also the ideal "eye-opener"

CLASSIC

ADVENTUROUS

THE ARTHUR MOSS (AKA FORMERLY BEN MINTZ)

A smoky agave Negroni with a blend of Mezcal and rested Tequila. Careful, a few of these will have you gabbing like a 1920s expatriated journalist.

13

SCOTCH AND COCONUT

Monkey Shoulder Scotch, Don Q Gran Anejo, and Coconut are a popular combination in Puerto Rico. We took some license and combined them in an Old-Fashioned format with a Coconut water ice ball.

14

HEADY

THE LUCK I'VE HAD

An aromatic, strong pull served Sazerac style. Two powerful spirits—mezcal and white armagnac—with a dash of habanero shrub and a big grapefruit note.

14

ODE TO JERRY THOMAS

A Rummy clarified milk punch with a spiced mint tea and a refreshing blend of pineapple and lime. A rich and cooling punch that would make Mr. Thomas proud.

13

NEW TO THE GAME

A bitter and slightly citrusy cocktail. In the vein of a Boulevardier, but with Irish Whiskey and amaro.
